

Questions received to date for the XNA On-call Architect RFQ and responses to each.

Q: Can the MBE/DBE requirements be fulfilled with in-house staff from a non-certified firm?

A: No, the firm must be certified to count towards the MBE/DBE goal.

Q: For the required DBE & MBE participation can we hire consultants on a project by project basis to fulfill the requirements?

A: Yes, absolutely.

Q: Is the intent for the teams submitting to provide services that are standard in house or is the expectation to have a complete team with all specialty service providers?

A: It's fine to bring on specialty providers on a project-by-project basis as needed.

Q: Do consultants/ Specialty Services need to be listed within the SOQ or just provided once awarded?

A: Additional consultants and specialty services may be provided upon award of a specific Task Order.

Q: Do the 254/255 project sheets count towards the 20 page limit?

A: No.
