

ARA Committee Chair

It is your job to preside over all meetings of your assigned committee. You help determine the substance of the agenda for meetings. It is your job to carry out the approved policies, procedures, goals and objectives of your assigned committee. You also hold a seat on the ARA Board of Directors as a committee chair and report your activities and accomplishments to that body.

These Directors are expected to promote and encourage involvement in ARA programs to Member Boards, including, but not limited to attendance at educational sessions, political programs, participation in the REALTOR®-of-the-Year program, participation in the elective process for ARA Officers, charitable fund raising programs, etc.

These Directors are expected to attend the following meetings:

- All meetings of the ARA Board of Directors. *
- ARA's State Convention and its Board of Directors * Meeting.
- ARA's Leadership Conference during and the year prior to the year their term starts *

 Mandatory meetings with required attendance policy: Attendance by these Directors shall be required. Upon the third absences during the entire term of the appointment, resignation shall be automatic. An excused absence is only when the member is attending another ARA or NAR Meeting held at the same time. The President shall determine such resignations. Should such resignation be instituted, the Director may file a written request to the Board of Directors for reinstatement explaining the reasons for absences. If reinstated, one additional absence shall automatically be a final resignation without the ability to submit for reinstatement.*
